

I am very strongly opposed to consolidation of the media. Such consolidation is a very real threat to democracy and freedom. Ownership should be de-consolidated, as it is currently in the hands of too few corporations. Freedom of the press/media must be preserved.